Purpose of Poison Ivy

At a summer camp for children one of the counselors was leading a discussion on the purpose God has for all of His creation. They began to find good reasons for clouds and trees, rocks, rivers and animals and just about everything else in nature. Finally, one of the children said, "If God has a good purpose for everything, then why did He create poison ivy?" The leader struggled with the question, when one of the children came to the rescue saying, "The reason God made poison ivy is that He wanted us to know there are certain things we should keep our cotton-pickin' hands off of."
